BULLDOG BITES

- Brewster Continues Climb: Senior flanker Carlton Brewster (Grand Rapids/Creston) is now 137 receiving yards away from moving into a tie for third place on Ferris’ all-time receiving leaders chart with Neal Mozdzierz (1996-99; 2,563 yds. on 206 catches). Brewster, who has had a game-high eight catches for 119 yards vs. Ashland last Saturday (Sept. 3), has accumulated 2,426 career receiving yards on 185 receptions in 34 contests. With his two TD grabs in the Ashland contests, Brewster has recorded 134 career points to date which ties him for 16th place with Benny Roe (1992-95) among the Bulldogs’ career scoring leaders and is four shy of tying Mozdzierz’s 15th-place 138 career point total.

- Impressive Showing: Redshirt freshman defensive end Kyle Walker (Grand Haven), who started the Ashland game in place of the injured junior end Nate Pranger (Middleville/Thornapple-Kellogg), compiled 11 total tackles (10 assists) in what represented his first collegiate starting assignment.

- Double Digits: Junior middle linebacker Mike Klobucher (Grand Haven/North Muskegon) notched his 11th career double-figure tackle outing against Ashland with a game-best 15 stops. Last season, the 2004 All-GLIAC Honorable Mention selection generated eight such performances. Klobucher also eclipsed the 200th career tackles plateau in last Saturday’s game and has racked up 211 career stops (116 solos) in 24 appearances. His squad-high 134 tackles last fall represented the 18th best output among Ferris’ all-time single-season leaders.

- The Kaui To Pass: Senior quarterback Ryan Kaui’s (Clarkston) 227- passing yards against Ashland represented the second highest single-game pass total of his career. The mark was second best to his career-high 257 yards at Mercyhurst last season (9/25). The signal-caller is presently 292 yards shy of tying Sparky McEwen (1988-90; 2,183 yds.) for 10th place on FSU’s all-time list and has thrown for 1,891 career yards on 113-of-219 passing (52.1%) with 15 TDs (including 7 against Ashland). Kaui moved ahead of Steve Duchon (1973-76; 1,833 yds.) into 11th place with his notable passing effort. He has posted seven career 150-yard plus passing game performances to date.

- Did You Know?: Ferris has registered a winning season in 11 of its last 16 campaigns and in six of Jeff Pierce’s 10 years at the helm. The Bulldogs won five consecutive conference championships from 1992-96 and were co-champs with Northwood in the 1999 campaign.

Ferris led throughout the contest as the Bulldogs racked up 386 yards of total offense while Hillsdale recorded a 249-yards total. Tailback Andrew Terry dashed left into the end zone from six yards out to cap off an 11-play, 90-yard scoring drive and give the Bulldogs a lead they would never relinquish. Ferris would erupt for nine unanswered fourth-quarter points as Kaul’s 13-yard TD run finished off an 11-play, 79-yard drive. The Chargers were able to avert a shutout as wide receiver Derek Nelson recovered a pass reception fumble by tight end Keith Recker in the end zone with just over a minute remaining. Middle linebacker Mike Klobucher led the defense with a game-leading 14 tackle (nine solo). Outside linebackers Kevin Myers and Rob Mida chipped in with 12 (nine solo) and 10 stops, respectively. The FSU victory represented the fifth time in the last six encounters in which the Bulldogs have prevailed.

NOTES: A Lubbers Stadium record crowd of 14,557 fans watched Grand Valley State tally 24 straight points late in the season-opening contest to notch the victory. GVU kicker Scott Greene connected on all three of his field goal attempts while quarterback Cullen Finnerty passed for two TDs and ran for another as the hosts outgained Ferris by a 400- to 202-yards margin in total offense. The Bulldogs only lead of the contest came late in the opening quarter when a long snap on a GVSU punt attempt sailed over punter Matt Regnery’s head and was picked up near the goal line where junior cornerback Lenald Mombo proceeded to block Regnery’s attempt and recovered the ball before dashing six yards for the TD to give Ferris a 6-3 advantage.

Josh Eichler split the uprights on the point after attempt as the Bulldogs held a 7-3 advantage.

Carlinton Brewer twice for scores in the third quarter and early in the fourth to get within a point (22-12) with eight minutes left in the contest. Senior quarterback Ryan Kaul hooked up with senior flanker Carlton Brewster twice for scores in the third quarter and junior tailback Shawn Grigg’s fourth-quarter TD drew Ferris to a point but junior kicker Josh Eichler missed the PAT.
