FOUR MORE: Senior split end Brandis Bowie (Lansing/Sexton) is only four receptions shy of attaining his 100th career catch. Bowie enters this Saturday's game with 96 career grabs for 1,050 yards and four TD's in 35 contests. Bowie's most production season to date was in 2003 when he caught 39 passes for 473 yards and two TD's in 11 encounters.

THIRD-BEST EVER: Senior flanker Carlton Brewster (Grand Rapids/Creston) moved into third place on Ferris' all-time receiving catches in 36 contests and surpassed Neal Mozdzierz (1996-99; 2,563 career yards.) for third place. Brewster is now within 12 yards of tying Cedric Gordon (1985-87; 2,576 career yards.) for second-place honors.

LITTLE AIR SPACE: Ferris' defense limited Indianapolis to only 23 yards passing (two-of-nine attempts) which represents the lowest single-game total in at least the last six seasons dating back to 1999. The 2002 Bulldog team held Northwood to 54 passing yards (four-of-eight attempts) in a 41-24 road loss by FSU (10/5).

ANOTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCE: Junior middle linebacker Mike Kloubucher's (Grand Haven/North Muskegon) game-high 17 tackles versus Indianapolis last Saturday marked his second highest single-game tackle total of his career. The 2004 All-GLIAC Honorable Mention pick has compiled double digits tackles the last three outings and is averaging 15.0 stops per game (45 total) during that span. He recorded a career-best 20 tackles in last season's opener (8/28) against Grand Valley State.

FIRST PICK: Sophomore outside linebacker Nick Maeder (Lake/Beal City) posted his first career pass interception with a 16-yard return in the third quarter vs. Indianapolis. Maeder's 34 stops this year already eclipsed his previous season high of 22 stops set as a frosh in 2003.

HALL OF FAME GAMES: The Bulldogs are 2-3-0 in their annual Hall of Fame Games which dates back to the 2000 season (9/23) with a 51-30 victory over Wayne State. Ferris snapped a three-game Hall of Fame losing string a season ago (10/2) with a 35-7 decision over Findlay. FSU is averaging 27.6 points per game (138 total pts.) in those contests.

Do You Know?: Ferris has registered a winning season in 11 of its last 16 campaigns and in six of Jeff Pierce's 10 years at the helm. The Bulldogs won five consecutive conference championships from 1992-96 and were co-champs with Northwood in the 1999 campaign.

NOTES: A Lubbers Stadium record crowd of 14,557 fans watched Grand Valley State tally 24 straight points midway through the season-opening contest to notch the victory. GVSU kicker Scott Greene connected on all three of his field goal attempts while quarterback Cullen Finnerty passed for two TDs and ran for another as the hosts outgained Ferris by a 400 to 202-yards margin in total offense. The Bulldogs only lead of the contest came late in the opening quarter when a long snap on a GVSU punt attempt sailed over punter Matt Regnery ‘s head and was picked up near the goal line where junior cornerback Lenald Mombo proceeded to block Regnery’s attempt and recovered the ball before dashing six yards for the TD to give Ferris a 6-3. Junior kicker Josh Eichler split the uprights on the point after attempt as the Bulldogs held a 7-3 advantage.

GVSU controlled the game from rest of the way with 17 straight second-quarter points. A 23-yard field goal by Eichler early in the third quarter capped off an eight-play, 57-yard Ferris scoring drive.

NOTES: Ferris State was forced to play catch up in its season home opener as the Bulldogs spotted Ashland a 22-point lead midway through the third quarter. Van Wieren, filling in for the injured starter Ryan Kaul, capped off the Bulldogs’ lone scoring drive in the second half by connecting with flanker Nate Fricke in the middle of the field as Fricke outran his defenders to the end zone in completing a three-play, 66-yard drive as Ferris closed to within 24-14. The Chargers prevented FSU from getting any closer after that as Matt Menchinger booted his second field goal of the game and running back Phil Martin tailed his second TD in the fourth quarter to snap a four-game series losing skid.

NOTES: Hillsdale gave its Homecoming crowd plenty to cheer about as the Chargers erupted for the game’s initial 17 points and led throughout their season home opener. The Bulldogs, despite 303 yards in total offense, trailed 17-0 with a minute left in the first half before backup quarterback C.J. Van Wieren lobbed a pass to the corner of the end zone which flanker Carlton Brewster swooped in front of to put Ferris on the board with six seconds left in the second quarter. Van Wieren, filling in for the injured starter Ryan Kaul, capped off the Bulldogs’ lone scoring drive in the second half by connecting with flanker Nate Fricke in the middle of the field as Fricke outran his defenders to the end zone in completing a three-play, 66-yard drive as Ferris closed to within 24-14. The Chargers prevented FSU from getting any closer after that as Matt Menchinger booted his second field goal of the game and running back Phil Martin tailed his second TD in the fourth quarter to snap a four-game series losing skid.

NOTES: Both teams combined for only 10 points in this defensive battle as Ferris was unable to register its initial victory of this season. UI fullback Sam Elmore tallied on a four-yard TD run early in the second quarter following a Greyhounds` interception by linebacker Leonard Bush at the FSU 22-yard line. Bush returned the pigskin 11 yards on the pass theft to set up the TD three plays later. Ferris' only points came in the third quarter on Josh Eichler's 29-yard field goal, which completed a nine-play, 29-yard drive. Each team had other scoring chances but Eichler missed a pair of field goal attempts (33 and 39 yds. in the second and third quarter, respectively) while Indianapolis kicker Nick Parker was unsuccessful on a 28-yarder in the third quarter. The Bulldogs made a last-ditch effort to overcome the deficit with less than two minutes to go in the game, but quarterback C.J. Van Wieren's pass was intercepted by corner-back Kenneth Akridge at the FSU 49-yard line and returned back to the Ferris 25-yard line with 1:17 remaining where the Hounds proceeded to run out the clock. Indy prevailed for the third time in the last four series meetings. C.J. Van Wieren, who was making his first collegiate start, paced the Bulldogs in rushing with 67 yards while tailback Devon Mitchell had 57 yards on the ground. Outside linebacker Nick Maeder had a 16-yard interception return while free safety Chris Beaudry also had a pass theft.
