BULLDOG BITES

MOMBO NUMBER NINE: Junior cornerback Lenald Mombo (Chicago, Ill./Hales Franciscan) registered a season-best nine tackles and had a pass interception for a one-yard return at Michigan Tech last Saturday (10/22). Mombo’s previous high was seven stops set in this season’s opener at Grand Valley State (8/27).

SCORING STREAK: Senior split end Brandis Bowie (Lansing/Sexton) recorded a receiving touchdown in his third straight game with a six-yard TD pass reception at Michigan Tech. Bowie has currently compiled a combined four TD catches in his last three contests to go with 127 yards receiving on nine grabs. In his previous six appearances this fall, Bowie accumulated 121 yards on 10 catches.

THE STREAK CONTINUES: Senior flanker Carlton Brewer (Grand Rapids/Creston) kept his single-game reception streak intact with one catch for 58 yards at Michigan Tech. Brewer presently has at least one pass reception in 36 consecutive games during his Ferris State career. The last time the FSU wideout didn’t catch a pass was in 2002 (10/12) against Michigan Tech. Brewer has now completed a 40 career outings to date.

THE FIRST TIME: Junior split end Matt Hohne (Jackson/Lumen Christi) garnered his first collegiate TD on a 16-yard pass reception late in the fourth quarter at Michigan Tech. Hohne finished the game with a career-high 36 yards in receiving on two grabs.

SEEING DOUBLE AGAIN: Redshirt freshman outside linebacker Jeff Hollandsworth’s (Livonia/Stevenson) team-leading 10 tackles (five solos) at Michigan Tech represented his third double-digit single-game tackle performance this season and snapped a personal four-game non-double-figure string in the process. He posted a season-best 15 tackles (seven solos) at Hillsdale earlier this season (9/10).

SCORING MACHINE: Junior fullback-tight end John Vandenberg (Trenton) tallied a touchdown for the second straight week with a first-quarter one-yard plunge at Michigan Tech. Vandenberg hadn’t scored a TD in 23 straight outings until posting a pair of rushing scores of two and one yards versus Northern Michigan (10/15).

HISTORIC MILESTONE: Head coach Jeff Pierce became Ferris’ all-time winningest coach last season (9/4) with the Bulldogs’ 23-17 overtime win at Ashland. Pierce surpassed current Hillsdale head coach Keith winningest coach last season (9/4) with the Bulldogs’ 23-17 overtime win (Trenton) tallied a touchdown for the second straight week with a first-quarter one-yard plunge at Michigan Tech. Vandenberg hadn’t scored a TD in 23 straight outings until posting a pair of rushing scores of two and one yards versus Northern Michigan (10/15).

LAST GAME: Ferris State suffered a 35-19 conference setback to nationally 25th-ranked Michigan Tech last Saturday (Oct. 22) at MTU’s Sherman Field in Houghton, Mich. A season ago, Ferris went 6-5-0 overall and placed fifth in the GLIAC at 6-4-0 last season. The Bulldogs were 2-3 at home last fall.

Northwood had its seven-game winning string snapped with a 30-14 conference loss to nationally top-ranked Grand Valley State last Saturday (Oct. 22) at NU’s Hantz Stadium in Midland, Mich. The Timberwolves, who are ranked 15th nationally this week by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), are 3-0-0 on the road and 4-2-0 at home this campaign. Northwood posted a 10-2 overall mark last season and was GLIAC co-champions with a 9-1 league record. The Timberwolves, who earned a share of their third GLIAC title since 1999, set a school-record for most wins in a campaign and competed in the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the second time in the program’s history. NU dropped a 10-7 home decision to Grand Valley State (11/20) in the semifinal round. The Timberwolves are sixth in the current NCAA-II Northwest Region rankings as released by the NCAA-II Football Committee.

THE COACHES: Ferris State – Jeff Pierce (Ferris State, 1979), 11th season, 69-50-0 (.579) – (7-3-0 vs. Northwood). Pierce has compiled a 36-21-0 (.632) coaching mark in home outings and is 27-18-0 (.600) in October contests to date. Pierce, who played at Ferris (defensive back) from 1974-77, is the 12th head coach in Ferris State’s history.

Northwood – Pat Riepma (Hillsdale, 1983), 13th season, 74-60-2 (.551) – (3-9-0 vs. Ferris State). Riepma is a four-time GLIAC Coach of the Year recipient, which is the most among active conference head coaches. He also is the second all-time winningest coach in NU history.

HOME FINALES: Ferris State has compiled a 14-6-0 (.700) record in its final home regular-season appearance per campaign since 1985. The Bulldogs sport a 10-8-0 (.556) mark since 1990 and have won three of their last six such outings to date. FSU suffered a 47-14 season-ending home loss to Saginaw Valley State last season (11/8). Ferris State’s last win in a regular-season home finale contest was in 2002 (11/9) with a 30-8 decision over Ashland.
Jeff Pierce is in his 11th year at Ferris State and owns the distinction of being the Bulldogs' all-time winningest coach. He reached the milestone a season ago (9/4) in Ferris' overtime win at Ashland. Under Pierce, FSU has won or shared three GLIAC titles (1995-96, 99) while earning consecutive (1995-96) NCAA-II Playoffs berths, including a semifinal-round appearance in 1995.

Ferris leads 8-6-0

2005 BULLDOGS-OF-THE-WEEK: Following each Ferris State contest, individual players will be recognized by the FSU coaching staff for their outstanding performance. Individual(s) will be selected on offense, defense, specialty teams, and for extraordinary effort (every player, every game).

- Sept. 3 at Ashland: Offense-Carlton Brewster, Defense-Dave Bryan, Specialty-Jeff Hollandsworth, EPEP-Jake Visser
- Sept. 10 at Hillsdale: Offense-Jeff Williams, Defense-Jim Skodak, Specialty-Dan Boulter, EPEP-Mike Klobucher
- Sept. 17 at Indianapolis: Offense-Josh Eichler, Defense-Mike Klobucher, Specialty-Dan Boulter, EPEP-Mike Klobucher
- Oct. 1 at Findlay: Offense-Brian Kaul, Defense-Jim Skodak, Specialty-Josh Eichler, EPEP-Nate Fricke
- Oct. 8 at North Dakota: Offense-John Vandenberg, Defense-Jeff Skodak, Specialty-Nate Wruble, EPEP-Kyle Walker
- Oct. 15 at Northern Michigan: Offense-Ryan Kaul, Defense-Mike Klobucher, Specialty-Josh Eichler, EPEP-Nate Fricke
- Nov. 5 at Saginaw Valley State: Home game listed in bold goal by Eichler early in the third quarter capped off 17 straight second-quarter points. A 23-yard field goal as the Bulldogs held a 7-3 advantage.

Josh Eichler split the uprights on the point after attempt as the hosts outgained Ferris by a 400 to 202-yards margin in total offense. The quarterback Cullen Finnerty passed for two TDs and connected on all three of his field goal attempts while GVSU kicker Scott Greene connected on all three of his attempts as the Chargers erupted for the game’s initial 17 points and led throughout their season home opener. The Bulldogs, despite 305 yards in total offense, trailed 17-0 with a minute left in the first half before backup quarterback C.J. Van Wieren lobbed a pass to the corner of the end zone which was celebrated its “Turn Back The Clock Night” scored 21 unanswered points late in the third quarter and early in the fourth to get within a point (22-12) with eight minutes left in the contest. Senior quarterback Ryan Kaul hooked up with senior flanker Carlton Brewster twice for scores in the third quarter and junior tailback Shawn Grigg's fourth-quarter TD drew Ferris to a point but junior kicker Josh Eichler missed the PAT. However, a FSU punt attemptmiscue gave the Eagles a two-point safety with just under four minutes to go. The Bulldogs' final offensive drive began with 2:42 on the clock and the hosts made it to their 42-yard line before Kaul's pass in the middle of the field was intercepted by AU's Brady Karrasch.

NOTES: A Lubbers Stadium record crowd of 14,557 fans watched Grand Valley State tally 24 straight points midway through the season-opening contest to notch the victory. GSU kick returner Cody Quigley connected on all three of his field goal attempts as the Chargers erupted for the game’s initial 17 points and led throughout their season home opener. The Bulldogs, despite 305 yards in total offense, trailed 17-0 with a minute left in the first half before backup quarterback C.J. NOTES:
Both teams combined for only 10 points in this defensive battle as Ferris was able to register its initial victory of this season. UI fullback Sam Elmore tallied on a four-yard TD run early in the second quarter following a Greyhounds' interception by linebacker Leon Burd at the FSU 22-yard line. Bush returned the pigskin 11 yards on the pass theft to set up the TD three plays later. Ferris' only points came in the third quarter on Eichler's 29-yard field goal, which completed a nine-play, 29-yard drive. Each team had other scoring chances but Eichler missed a pair of field goal attempts (33 and 39 yds. in the second and third quarter, respectively) while Indianapolis kicker Nick Parker was unsuccessful on a 28-yarder in the third quarter. The Bulldogs made a last-ditch effort to overcome the deficit with less than two minutes to go in the game, but quarterback C.J. Van Wieren's pass was intercepted by corner- back Kevin Akridge at the FSU 49-yard line and returned back to the Ferris 25-yard line with 1:17 remaining where the Hounds proceeded to run out the clock. Indy prevailed for the third time in the last remaining where the Hounds proceeded to run out

Van Wieren ran for a game-high 194 yds. while middle linebacker Nick Notario - 10 tackles (five solo), 2.5 TFL for 10 yds., 1.0 sack for 9 yds. Notes: Quarterback C.J. Van Wieren scored three rushing TD's as Ferris State gained its first victory of the season. Van Wieren ran for a game-high 194 yards, which marked a Bulldogs single-game record for most rushing yards by a quarterback. Ferris tallied the game’s first 17 points and led 27-6 at halftime before Mercyhurst mounted a second-half comeback with 14 unanswered third-quarter points to close within 27-20 to two minutes in go to the quarter. Van Wieren's five-yard TD keeper with 8:45 remaining in the game proved the winning points as the Bulldogs offense racked up a season-high 533 yards while the hosts limited MC to only 88 yards on the ground. Ferris picked up its second consecutive Hall of Fame game win while Van Wieren was chosen as the GLIAC's Offensive Player of the Week.

NOTES:
An 18-yard field goal by Josh Eichler as time expired extended the Bulldogs' winning string to two as the Bulldogs defeated the Oilers for the third consecutive time in their all-time series. Ferris has now won six of the last seven meetings. FSU led 15-17 at halftime as quarterback Ryan Kaul passed for three TD's, including two to flanker Nate Fricke, and also ran for another in the second quarter. A pair of Darren Paige fourth-quarter TD's knotted the game at 31-all before Ferris received the ball with 2:48 left and drove down to the UF two-yard line to set up Eichler for the game-winning score. For his efforts, Eichler was selected the GLIAC Special Teams Player of the Week. Defensive tackle Jake Visser posted a team-high 14 tackles and middle linebacker Mike Klobucher garnered 12 stops.

INDIVIDUAL LEADERS
Rushing
FS: C.J. Van Wieren - 5/20 yds
ND: Chris Beatty - 14/101 yds, 1 TD

Passing
FS: Ryan Kaul - 31/19/2, 177 yds, 1 TD
ND: Chris Belmore - 23/14/0, 172 yds, 1 TD

Receiving
FS: Carlton Brewster - 8/137 yds, 2 TD
ND: Josh Brandst - 6 tackles (four solo), 1.0 FF

NOTES: North Dakota came into the contest as the nation's second-ranked team and demonstrated why with 44 unanswered points in a perfect record this season. The Fighting Sioux also extended their school-record home winning streak to 23 games with the non-conference decision. Unlike a season ago when Ferris State was shutout (45-0) by UND in the first-ever meeting between the two teams, the Bulldogs actually were the first to score as the visitors took the ball to start the contest and marched 74 yards on seven plays. The drive culminated in a 23-yard TD pass play from quarterback Ryan Kaul to split end Brandis Bowie. The FSU first-quarter TD marked the first time all season UND has trailed at home. The Bulldogs hoped to increase their lead after recovering a fumble on the Sioux's 12-yard line, but the UND defense blocked a field goal attempt and the momentum swung in its favor the remainder of the game.

NOTES: Michigan Tech's Lee Marana was virtually a one-person wrecking crew as the junior halfback not only scored four rushing TD's, but also set two MTU single-game records for yards rushing (333) and rush attempts (51). Ferris State opened the scoring after its biggest play of the game – a 58-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Kaul to flanker Carlton Brewster to set up fullback John Vandenberg's one-yard plunge. But the 25th-ranked Huskies would eventually hit paydirt with two second-quarter scores as quarterback Drew Schaff's TD just before halftime gave MTU the lead for good. A 43-yard Jim Skodak punt return in the final frame put the Bulldogs at the Tech seven yard line and Ferris capitalized as Kaul tossed a six-yard TD pass to senior split end Brandis Bowie to tie the score at 17.
