The 2007-08 Bulldogs

Aaron Lewicki
6-0 ◆ 194 ◆ Sophomore
Right Wing
Livonia, Michigan

2007-08: An up-and-coming prospect . . . Offensive threat on the wing . . . Increased skating speed should translate into an increase in offensive numbers this campaign . . . Displayed great improvement throughout the course of the 2006-07 campaign . . . Has the potential to be an offensive force given time and hard work . . . Displays good puckhandling skills . . . Has a knack for scoring goals and also creating scoring opportunities for his teammates.

2006-07: Received ice time in 32 of team’s 39 games . . . Finished tied for sixth place among team’s top points producers with 15 points and was second in freshmen class scoring . . . His nine goals on the season represented a tie for third most on the squad . . . Registered a season-high three points (1-2=3) in season-opening series finale against Union (10/7) . . . Accounted for the Bulldogs’ game-winning lamplighter in 7-1 non-league home victory over Mercyhurst (10/13) and also at Wayne State (1/13) on a power play to go with an assist . . . Started out season with five points (2-3=5) in his initial four games while tallying a marker in two consecutive contests – vs. Union (10/7) and Mercyhurst (10/13) . . . Put together a three-game point string (1-6-3) which featured a goal per contest – at Northern Michigan (1/6) and at Wayne State (1/12 and 1/13) . . . Scored a goal in back-to-back CCHA home victories over Michigan State (2/13) and Bowling Green State (2/16) . . . Produced a goal and was +1 in both the first (3/2) and final (3/4) games of the first-round CCHA Tournament series at Lake Superior State . . . Notched a personal season-best five points each in October (2-3=5) and January (3-2=5) over an eight-game period apiece . . . Placed tied for 12th on the team with four (1-3=5) power-play points.

HIGH SCHOOL/JUNIORS: Played two seasons (2004-05 and 2005-06) for the Texarkana Bandits of the North American Hockey League (NAHL) under head coach Jon Cooper . . . Selected team’s top offensive player following 2005-06 season after scoring a squad-high 34 goals with 22 assists for 56 points in 56 contests which placed him in a tie for 27th place on the NAHL’s top points leaders list . . . His 34 lamplighters represented the fourth-best goals output in the NAHL for the 2005-06 campaign . . . Scored 12 power-play goals and had 11 game-winning markers a season ago, both team highs . . . Accumulated 37 points on 14 goals and 23 assists in 56 appearances during the 2004-05 campaign en route to being named the Bandits’ Rookie of the Year . . . Tied for sixth place in team goals and seventh in assists while his season points total ranked tied for 46th place on the squad’s scoring charts . . . Juniors teammate of FSU forward Casey Haines . . . Member of Select Team (15,16 and 17).

PERSONAL: Born 7/30/87 in Detroit, Mich . . . Son of Ed and Sue Lewicki . . . Father is employed as a driver/salesman and mother is a manicurist . . . Recorded an ace in golf at age nine . . . Shoots: Right . . . FSU Letters: One . . . Finance major.
2007-08: Talented netminder who’s coming off a solid second-half 2006-07 season performance. Will compete for one of the top two assignments and consistency of performance will be the key. Technically-sound with quick reflexes. Butterfly-style netminder. Possesses excellent skills. Has shown the ability to compete against college hockey’s top teams. Should benefit from stiff competition. Positioning and conditioning are the keys to his game. An eighth-round (234th overall) selection by the San Jose Sharks in the 2004 NHL Entry Draft. Listed 21st among goaltenders in the NHL’s Central Scouting Services final draft rankings. Ranks sixth all-time at FSU in goals-against average, seventh in save percentage, and 12th in saves per game (23.34 avg).

2006-07: Named the RBC Financial Group CCHA Player of the Month for February 2007 as a result of a 4-1-0 record with a .950 save percentage (151 total saves) and a 1.60 goals-against average (eight goals allowed) in 299:24 minutes. Chosen CCHA Goaltender of the Week (2/19) and was a runner-up for Inside College Hockey’s Player of the Week kudos (2/20). Had 25 or more single-game saves eight times, including season-high 38 stops in 6-2 win over Ohio State (2/5). Turned aside 23 shots in 2-1 home victory over then fifth-ranked Michigan State (2/13). Had 35 saves in 6-3 decision vs. Nebraska Omaha (1/20) and 35 in regular-season finale loss at top-ranked Notre Dame (2/24). Won his first three starts, which included 27 stops at Northern Michigan (1/6). turnaround over the course of the season.

2005-06: Collected 25 or more saves three times. Recorded a career-high 43 saves in 3-3 overtime tie vs. Boston College (12/30) in Wells Fargo Denver Cup semifinals and stopped 24 shots in tourney’s third-place game win at Denver (12/31). Made 25 saves in a winning effort against Bemidji State (11/18). Turned away 28 shots on goal at Nebraska Omaha (12/4). Earned CCHA All-Rookie Honorable Mention Team plaudits. Posted nine 20-save or more game performances, including a season-high 34 saves at Miami (12/11). Tabbed as CCHA’s Goaltender of the Week (12/13) at Miami (12/11). Turned aside 33 shots twice – against Ohio State (10/16) and at Alaska Fairbanks (1/21). First collegiate win came against Connecticut (11/12) with a 19-save effort. Selected nation’s fifth-best incoming freshman netminder by Inside College Hockey.

The 2007-08 Bulldogs

Adam Miller
6-0 ◆ 178 ◆ Senior Center
Livonia, Michigan

2007-08: A skilled offensive player, who's capable of being one of the CCHA's top scorers . . . Recovery from offseason surgery will dictate performance level . . . Will be looked to for added offensive output this season due to heavy graduation losses to the front unit . . . Shows excellent puck handling skills and displays good vision of the ice . . . Fluid skater . . . Will contend for action in power-play opportunities . . . Versatile and can play either at wing or center . . . Diligent worker at both ends of the rink.

2006-07: Totaled a squad sixth-place best 15 points in 31 contests . . . Tallied a hat trick (3-0=3) and was +3 in 5-2 win over Bowling Green State (2/17) . . . Turned in three points (1-2=3) vs. Ohio State (2/3) . . . Ranked tied for fifth on team with four multi-point outings . . . Had a goal and an assist vs. Western Michigan (10/21) . . . Tallied the game-winner with 1:27 left in 2-1 win over nationally-ranked Michigan State (2/13) . . . Picked up a pair of assists at Lake Superior State (3/3) in game two of CCHA Tourney First-Round series . . . Racked up a season-best eight points (6-2=8) in as many February games.

2005-06: Played in all team's 40 contests . . . His 22 points ranked sixth in team scoring while tying for fifth with 10 goals . . . Tallied two goals apiece both against Western Michigan (11/11 and 2/3) . . . Totaled three points (2-1=3) at Western Michigan (2/3) . . . His five multi-point games tied for fourth on the team . . . Had six points (4-2=6) in a three-game span (11/5-11) with two points in each contest . . . Posted eight points (4-4-8) in nine November games and seven points (2-5-7) in eight February outings . . . Tallied the game-winner at Denver (12/31) in Wells Fargo Denver Cup . . . Turned in a four-game (2-10-18) point string with an assist in each outing . . . 72.7% (16-22) of his season's points were in league contests.

2004-05: Competed in 36 of 39 games . . . Shared FSU’s Plus/Minus Award after a team-best tying +6 rating . . . Finished ninth on the squad’s top scorers list while recording the second-highest points total among Bulldog rookies . . . Tied for fifth place with three multi-point games . . . First multi-point outing (1-1=2) against Ohio State (10/15) . . . Picked up a helper vs. Colgate (10/8) in his debut . . . Nine of his 12 points (75%) were in CCHA play.

High School/Juniors: Spent 2003-04 with the Des Moines (Iowa) Buccaneers of the United States Hockey League and was coached by Bob Ferguson . . . Named squad’s 2003-04 Rookie of the Year with 46 points (22-24-46) in 54 contests . . . Finished 2003-04 regular season tied for 21st in league scoring and was in a 13th-place tie among the USHL’s top goal scorers . . . 2003 Little Caesar’s Midget Major MVP . . . Racked up 160 points (64-96=160) in 85 total outings from 2002-03 as Little Caesar’s went 63-17-5 overall . . . A 2003 graduate of Livonia Stevenson High School . . . Prepped by Ed Sheperd.

CAREER STATISTICS

BY THE NUMBERS AGAINST 2007-08 OPPONENTS

2007-08 – FERRIS STATE BULLDOG HOCKEY
2007-08: An active skater. Exceptionally strong. A well-conditioned athlete. Regarded as a cyclist with great ability to finish. Hopes to increase productivity this season after up-and-down 2006-07 campaign. Possesses an excellent shot and a quick release. Has a nice scoring touch. Has potential to be a highly-capable goal scorer. His style of play fits well within the confines of Ferris’ rink. Willing to sacrifice body in creating scoring opportunities.

2006-07: Skated in 34 of squad’s 39 games. Ranked 15th among team’s points leaders and third in rookie scoring. Notched a season-high three points (1-2=3) vs. Union (10/7) in season-opening series finale, including his first collegiate lamplighter. Generated five points (2-3=5) in his first four appearances. Registered a lamplighter in home outings vs. Mercyhurst (10/14) and Michigan (11/17) with the latter occurring on a power play. Had an assist apiece against Mercyhurst (10/13) and at Northern Michigan (11/17) along with back-to-back league home contests vs. Michigan State (10/13) and Bowling Green State (10/16). Garned a personal season-best +1 efficiency rating in seven outings. Tied for 12th on the squad with four power-play points (2-2=4). Compiled a season-high five points (2-3=5) in eight October encounters.

High School/Juniors: Skated the last two seasons (2004-05 and 2005-06) with the Nanaimo (British Columbia) Clippers of the British Columbia Hockey League (BCHL). Coached by Bill Bestwick. Recorded a team-high 81 points on a squad-best 42 goals and 39 assists in 64 2005-06 season contests as the Clippers captured their second consecutive BCHL Island Division regular-season title en route to a 44-12-0 campaign. Scored 11 power-play goals and six short-handed markers in 2005-06. Voted the Clippers’ 2005-06 Most Valuable Player. Finished 18th in league scoring for the 2005-06 campaign and was 12th in the previous season (2004-05) with a team third-place 82 points total in 74 overall encounters. Generated a squad-best 47 goals with 35 helpers as Nanaimo registered a 48-9-0 overall record for the 2004-05 season. Tallied a squad-high tying 16 power-play goals and one short-handed lamplighter. Holds team single-season record for most short-handed goals. Played for the Merritt (British Columbia) Centennials of the BCHL in 2003-04 and had 64 points with 22 goals and 42 assists in 60 games. A 2003 graduate of Sa-Hali Secondary School in Kamloops, British Columbia.

Chris Zarb

6-4 ◆ 204 ◆ Junior Defenseman
Waterford, Michigan

2007-08: A defender with excellent size and mobility. Continues to work on improving his strength and conditioning. Sees the ice well. Good puck handler. Possesses an excellent shot. Will compete for ice time in power-play situations. Drafted in the fifth round (144th overall) of the 2004 National Hockey League Entry Draft by the Philadelphia Flyers. Entered the draft ranked 37th by the NHL's Central Scouting Service and was the highest of the 29 United States Hockey League (USHL) skaters to be rated.

2006-07: Appeared in 29 games and set a new career high with 14 points to rank tied for eighth among the Bulldogs. Shared top highest scoring defenseman honors. Credited with three assists and had a +3 efficiency rating against Mercyhurst (10/13) and enjoyed a two-point (0-2=2) night at Michigan (11/26). Posted his first collegiate goal with a third-period score at Wayne State (11/1). Registered a point in eight contests during an 11-game stretch (10/28-12/30). Contributed an assist and was +5 against Western Michigan (11/21). Recorded 57% (0-8=8) of his season's points in CCHA competition. Tied for sixth place on team with seven (0-7=7) power-play points. Best offensive months were October (0-4=4, 8 GP) and December (0-4=4, 5 GP). Had a assist in three straight games vs. Western Michigan (11/21) and at Miami (12/1-2). Wore jersey No. 10.

High School/Juniors: Two-time USHL All-Star pick with the Tri-City Storm of Kearney, Neb. under coach Bliss Littler. Produced 23 points (9-13-29) in 48 games during the 2004-05 campaign. Compiled 24 points (4-20-24) in 43 outings for the 2003-04 season. His 24-points total was 11th highest on the tri-city storm. Contributed an assist and was +5 against Western Michigan (11/21). Recorded 57% (0-8=8) of his season's points in CCHA competition. Tied for sixth place on team with seven (0-7=7) power-play points. Best offensive months were October (0-4=4, 8 GP) and December (0-4=4, 5 GP). Had a assist in three straight games vs. Western Michigan (11/21) and at Miami (12/1-2). Wore jersey No. 10.

Personal: Son of Bob and Donna Zarb. Born 1/11/85 in San Diego, Calif. Father is a steel plant manager while his mother is employed as a salary representative at General Motors Corporation. Enjoys playing cards, tennis and golf. Nickname is “Mongo.” Shoots: Right.
