The Ferris State University men's basketball program has been one of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's (GLIAC) most successful programs since the conference's inception in 1972.

Ferris has won 11 overall GLIAC titles and captured the league's tournament championship and automatic NCAA Tournament bid in 1997-98. Since 1981, Ferris has had 54 all-conference selections including 29 first-team honorees. FSU senior Dennis Springs earned GLIAC North Division First-Team accolades at the conclusion of the 2005-06 campaign while senior Antwuan Holt and junior Terrance Shaw were second-team picks.

In 2002-03, FSU senior Adam Anderson claimed All-GLIAC kudos for the third time in his career. Anderson, who led the league in scoring (21.3 ppg) as a junior during the 2000-01 campaign, has played professional basketball both overseas and in Michigan.
