Ferris State has compiled a 12-9 record in NCAA Tournament history, which includes a third-place showing in 1998.

The Ferris State softball program has experienced noteworthy success on the diamond over the last decade and attained national recognition as a result of their accomplishments. Since current head coach Keri Becker stepped onto campus in 1997, the Bulldogs have won or shared two GLIAC titles (2000 and 2005), two NCAA Regional titles (2000 and 2005), and qualified for the NCAA National Championships (1998-99) and the NCAA Regional title. The 1998 team went on to place third at the NCAA National Championships, the highest finish ever for a FSU women’s athletics program at the time.

The Ferris State softball program has experienced noteworthy success on the diamond over the last decade and attained national recognition as a result of their accomplishments.